

Keywords: South Eastern Europe, children, diversity, media content, initiatives/projects

"If someone would say that he was taking our mom away, I would run after her and not let her go," Azra, 10, says as she sits in the lap of her mother, Hidajeta. She pulls her hands and kisses them, while Hidajeta gently strokes her hair.

Azra is one of a thousand orphans in Bosnia, while Hidajeta is what is called an SOS mother in the Children' Village in the Sarajevo Mojnilo settlement.....

(by Merima Spahic - BETA - MDI, 2002)

 SOS Mom.doc